

Can you enter the total IQ score from the WAIS III?

Frequently Asked Question:

Can you enter the total IQ score from the WAIS III?

Answer:

In order to generate the Discrepancy Analysis, the subtest scores of both instruments must be entered into the SAWS-A program.

The SAWS A is no longer available for purchase. Support for this software will continue for computers that fall within the parameters of the system requirements. For a list of system requirements please see the article in this section titled "System Requirements"
