

Why is the maximum score included for all ages when it is unlikely that some students (particularly the younger ones) could receive raw scores that high?

Frequently Asked Question:

Why is the maximum score included for all ages when it is unlikely that some students (particularly the younger ones) could receive raw scores that high?

Answer:

The upper limit was included for those instances in which a student is academically gifted and/or young for grade.

Article ID: 2265

Last updated: 23 Nov, 2008

Scoring Support -> WIAT-II -> Why is the maximum score included for all ages when it is unlikely that some students (particularly the younger ones) could receive raw scores that high?

<http://pearsonassessmentsupport.com/support/index.php?View=entry&EntryID=2265>