

When I export into a Word document, the spell check is not working.

Frequently Asked Question:

When I export into a Word document, the spell check is not working.

Resolution:

In Word 97, message is received stating ""spell-check is complete."" (But misspelled words remain), In Word 2000, message received stating "spell-check complete but text marked 'do not check spelling or grammar' was skipped."

Word 97:

- Press Ctrl+A to select the entire report.
- Go to Tools, Language, Set Language.
- Change from 'Do not proof' to 'English (United States)' and click OK.

Word 2000:

- Press Ctrl+A to select the entire report.
- Go to Tools, Language, Set Language.
- Un-check the box for 'do not check spelling or grammar' and click OK.

Word 2003

- Press Ctrl+A to select the entire report.
- Go to Tools, Language, Set Language.
- Highlight ""English""
- Un-check the box for 'do not check spelling or grammar' and click OK.
- Click the Floppy Icon to save the changes
- Now misspelled words will be underlined.

Word 2007

- Click the Microsoft Office Button
- Click word Options
- Click Proofing
